

Ongezwa Mbele is a South African applied theatre facilitator, storyteller, published poet and PhD candidate at the University of Cape Town. She is currently a drama and performance lecturer at the University of Kwa Zulu Natal.

In 2016-2017, she worked as a prison theatre facilitator in Norway at Vardeteatre on a professional exchange programme funded by Norec.

Ongezwa has been drawn to theatre that addresses societal issues. Therefore, she has studied courses such as Prison theatre and teaching dance in education. These courses have harnessed her passion of using theatre as medium in her work with young people and children.
